

Media Mentions

(...) First place for the 2017 Gräfenberg GG on the list of the World's Top 50 White Wines: "Second place a year ago, top billing in 2016 – and now the title of 'White Wine of the Year' once again goes to Weingut Robert Weil and its Gräfenberg. This flagship GG is the best-selling white wine in its price class, with unwavering first-class quality, an impressive level of brand recognition and a flawless image, not to mention a stylish nature and highly unmistakable signature."

Weinwirtschaft 01/2019

(...) Dream marks for the 2017 vintage: eighteen Weil Rieslings averaging 95/100 points! (Stephan Reinhardt)

Robert M. Parker · The Wine Advocate (November 2018)

(...) Best-possible marks with 5 grapes signifying world class: "Wilhelm Weil and his team have to be pleased once again with their successes in a vintage that was anything but easy, with bewitching nobly sweet specialties and impressive dry 2017 Rieslings."

Gault & Millau WEINGUIDE Deutschland 2019

(...) Top marks with five stars: "This year's Weil collection is brilliant. Right up at the top, truly on Cloud Nine, is the Trockenbeerenauslese. If this wine doesn't merit 100 points, then what does?"

falstaff Weinguide 2019 Deutschland

(...) once again the highest-possible marks (5 stars) signifying "World-class international premium producer": "The nobly sweet premium wines are of course incredible. But what we really enjoyed from the Weil 2017 vintage were in fact the entry level wines."

Eichelmann 2019 Deutschlands Weine

(...) top marks and 5 F's once again as one of the best wine producers: "2017 has surely brought many smiles to the Weil estate. We tasted outstanding Auslese wines and a Grosses Gewächs that never fails to please."

DER FEINSCHMECKER. Die besten Winzer & Weine 2018/2019

(...) "Insider – Hot Wines" from Wine Spectator awarded the 2016 Kiedrich Gräfenberg Riesling Eiswein 96/100 points
